COMPETITIVE SCAN • NORTHERN WESTCHESTER

TEAM BRIEF

Chappaqua Pulse: The Next Local Essential

What leading regional chamber websites reveal—and where Chappaqua Pulse can build a more useful, modern resident experience.

THE OPPORTUNITY

Don't copy a chamber site. Combine its business tools with a better local guide.

Chappaqua Pulse already brings events, dining, shopping and an interactive map into one polished, mobile-friendly experience. The next step is turning occasional visits into a weekly habit—and giving local businesses richer ways to participate.

CURRENT ADVANTAGE

Built for residents first

Compared with traditional member-focused chamber sites, Pulse is faster to browse, more visually engaging and better organized around the question: "What should we do locally this week?"

Six gaps worth closing

1. Weekly newsletter & alerts
   A curated "This Weekend" email, category preferences, dining deals and new-business announcements.
2. Richer business profiles
   Photos, hours, phone, social links, maps, current offers and "Claim this listing."
3. Deals beyond dining
   A Buy Local hub for retailer and service promotions, seasonal offers and expiration dates.
4. Save, share & calendar tools
   Add to Google/Apple/Outlook, save favorites and assemble a personal "My Weekend" itinerary.
5. Real event submission
   Replace email with a structured form, image upload, admin approval and ticket/vendor links.
6. Signature event guides
   Dedicated destinations for major events with schedules, maps, parking, merchants and sponsors.

Recommended rollout

NOW • RETENTION

Become a weekly habit

- → Newsletter & alerts
- → Add to calendar
- → Save and share events

NEXT • UTILITY

Deepen local discovery

- → Detailed profiles
- → Retail and service deals
- → Event approval workflow

LATER • PLATFORM

Empower the ecosystem

- → Claim a business
- → Owner self-service
- → Membership & sponsors

Research set: Mount Kisco Chamber, Pleasantville Chamber, Bedford Area Chamber and Hudson Valley Gateway Chamber. Public website review, September 2026.

North-star:
One place to plan local life.